

Courses taught
Anna Fenyvesi

University of Szeged:

- Linguistic Analysis (seminar, PhD)
- Sociolinguistics (seminar, PhD)
- Introduction to Linguistics (lecture, BA)
- Introduction to Sociolinguistics (lecture, BA)
- Advanced Sociolinguistics (seminar, MA)
- Language contact (seminar, MA, PhD)
- Multilingualism in the United States (seminar, MA)
- Bilingualism (seminar, MA)
- American Dialects (seminar, MA)
- Academic Writing (seminar, BA)
- Aspects of English Linguistics (lecture, BA)
- Beginning Hungarian Grammar (Hungarian studies program language course)
- Intermediate Grammar of Hungarian (Hungarian studies program language course)
- Intermediate Writing and Reading in Hungarian (Hungarian studies program language course)
- Intermediate Reading and Conference (Hungarian studies program language course)

Visiting Erasmus Exchange Professor, Department of Foreign Languages, University of Joensuu, Finland:

- Multilingualism in the United States (2005)
- Language Contact (2003)

Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of Applied Linguistics, Portland State University, Portland, OR, 1999/2000.

- LING 415/515 Phonetics
- LING 407/507 Topic: Language variation
- LING 412/512 Phonology
- LING 432/532 Sociolinguistics
- LING 290 Introduction to Language
- LING 407/507 Topic: Language contact

Instructor of Hungarian, University of Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh, PA, 1992-1996.

- Beginning Hungarian 1
- Beginning Hungarian 2
- Beginning Intensive Hungarian

József Attila University (1987-1991):

- Introduction to Linguistics (lecture)
- Introduction to Applied Linguistics (seminar)
- Descriptive Grammar of English (seminar)
- Communicative grammar of English (seminar)
- Syntax of English (seminar)
- American civilization (seminar)
- Beginning Hungarian (Hungarian studies language course)