

CV

PERSONAL DATA:

Suszczyńska Małgorzata, born 10 December, 1953, Inowrocław (Poland).

EDUCATION:

University of Warsaw, MA in English Philology, 1977.

CURRENT EMPLOYMENT:

SZTE, Institute of English and American Studies, Department of English

DEGREES (PHD, CSC)

-

SCHOLARSHIPS:

-

COURSES TAUGHT:

1986-1996

Introduction to Linguistics (lecture); Descriptive grammar (seminar); Writing (language seminar); Listening comprehension (language seminar); Drama techniques (language seminar); Conversation practice (language seminar); Phonetics (seminar); Phonology & morphology (seminar); Polish (language class).

1988-2008

Historical Linguistics and the History of the English Language (lecture and seminar).

1992-2008

Applied Linguistics: Introduction to Sociopragmatics (lecture and seminar); Conversation analysis (seminar); Talk in Institutional Settings (seminar); Advanced Sociopragmatics (seminar); Language, Politeness and Culture (seminar); Cross-cultural Pragmatics (seminar).

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

2009

planned submission and defense of a PhD dissertation.

1998-

senior assistant professor at the University of Szeged, Institute of English and American Studies, Department of English.

1991-93

part time lecturer at the Teachers' Training College, Department of English, Szeged.

1987

quest lecturer in linguistics, Elon College, NC, USA.

1985-98

assistant professor at the University of Szeged, Department of English.

1978-82

EFL teacher at English Language College, Warsaw.

1977-79

EFL teacher at a High School, Warsaw.

1977

graduated from the University of Warsaw, MA in English Philology.

MA thesis: The Phonology of Early Modern English Loanwords.

1972-77

English major at the University of Warsaw.

2001

two of my students were awarded the 2nd prize at OTDK and I received two letters of recognition for my supervising work.

I supervise and act as a second reader of MA theses and Major Papers/BA papers in applied linguistics. Since 2002, on several occasions I have acted as a referee for Journal of Pragmatics.

MEMBERSHIPS:

IPrA, The International Pragmatics Association

LPRG, The Linguistic Politeness Research Group

PROJECTS:

Researcher in LINEE, Languages in a Network of European Excellence project, Work Package 3a: Politics and strategies of identity in multicultural European cities.

PUBLICATIONS:

2008 European Communicative Styles: Hungary, The Journal of EuroLinguistix, <http://www.eurolinguistix.com>. (Submitted for publication)

2007 Helyreállítás-stratégiák nemek szerinti különbségei [Gender differences in repair work]. In: Erzsébet Barát — Klára Sándor (eds.): A nő helye a magyar nyelvhasználatban, "Nyelv, ideológia, média". [A woman's place in language use, "Language, ideology, media"]. Szeged: JATE Press, p. 195-214.

2005 Apology Routine Formulae in Hungarian, Acta Linguistica Hungarica 52 (1):1-42.

2003 A jóvatevés beszédaktusai a magyarban [Repair work in Hungarian], Általános nyelvészeti tanulmányok XX: 255-294.

- 1999 Apologizing in English, Polish and Hungarian: Different languages, different strategies”, Journal of Pragmatics 31: 1053-1065.
- 1996 On Spoken Discourse: Remedial Accounts in English and Hungarian. In Rác István (ed.), English Studies and the Curriculum. Proceedings of the First TEMPUS-JEN Mini Conference. Debrecen: Kossuth Egyetemi Kiadó, 71-78.
- 1994 A Study in Intercultural Pragmatics: Apology”. *Studies in Applied Linguistics*1: 111-22.
- 1994 Linguistic Politeness and the Speech Act of Apology”. Proceedings from Negyedik Alkalmazott Nyelvészeti Konferencia (Budapest). Folia Practico-linguistica 24: 571-8

CONFERENCES, STUDY TRIPS:

- 2008 2-4 June, paper (together with Eva Ogiermann, a Polish researcher) at the 4th International Symposium on Politeness 'East meets West' Conference, Budapest. “On (Im)politeness Behind the Iron Curtain”.
- 2007 7-8 September: paper at A női/férfi identitás és tapasztalat [Female and male identity and experience] conference, Szeged, “Felnőtt magyar férfi és nő beszélők bocsánatkérését értelmező öntreflexiói” [Hungarian male and female adults self-reports concerning apologies].
8-13 July: paper at the 10th International Pragmatics Conference, Göteborg, Svédország, “Repair work in context. Reports of adult Hungarian males and females concerning apologies”.
2-4 July: paper at The Third International Symposium on Politeness, University of Leeds, UK, “Hungarian adults’ reports about apologizing”.
25-27 January, HUSSE8, Szeged, a section chair.
- 2006 11-14 May: paper at The 3rd International Symposium: New Developments in Linguistic Pragmatics, “Repair work in Hungarian”, the University of Łódź, Poland.
- 2005 8-9 September: paper at A nő helye a magyar nyelvhasználatban: „nyelv, ideológia, média” conference, “Helyreállítás-stratégiák nemek szerinti különbségei” [Gender differences in Repair Work Strategies], SZTE, Szeged.
- 2005 5-10 July: poster at the 9th International Pragmatics Conference, Riva del Garda, Italy, “Repair Work in Hungarian: apologizing to spouses and colleagues after a verbal argument”.
- 2000 9-14 July: section chair at the 7th International Pragmatics Conference, Budapest, Hungary.
- 1998 19-24 July: participation in the 6th International Pragmatics Conference, Reims, France.
January-February: a study trip to the University of Lancaster, Department of Linguistics, supported by the British Council.
- 1997 September: paper at the ESSE4 Conference, Debrecen, Hungary, “Apologies in A Corpus of English Conversation: A Strategic Perspective”.
- 1996 January-February: a study trip to the University of Lancaster, Department of Linguistics, supported by the British Council.
- 1995 September: paper at the ESSE conference, Glasgow: “Apologizing in English, Hungarian and Polish: Different Languages, Different Strategies”.
- 1994 October-December: a study trip to the Jagiellonian University, Cracow, Poland, supported by FEFA.
- 1994 July: paper at the Negyedik Magyar Alkalmazott Nyelvészeti Konferencia, Műegyetem, Budapest, “Linguistic Politeness and the Speech Act of Apology”.
- 1993 April: one month TEMPUS study trip to the University of Sussex, Department of European Studies and Linguistics, UK.
- 1993 Paper at the Harmadik Magyar Alkalmazott Nyelvészeti Konferencia, Miskolc, “A Study in Intercultural Pragmatics: Apology”.
- 1992 Participant of the USIS Applied Linguistics seminar, Pozsony, Szlovákia.
- 1991 Participant of the USIS Applied Linguistics seminar, University of Veszprém, Hungary.
- 1990 Participant of the USIS Applied Linguistics seminar, University of Veszprém, Hungary.
- 1990 Participant of the British Council summer course “Modern English Drama and Theatre”, London, UK.
- 1989 One-week study trip with two invited lectures to the Turku University, Finland.